Brian has practiced management labor and employment law in Charlotte for more than 17 years. He has extensive experience representing public and private employers with local, national and multinational operations. He represents management concerning Title VII, ADA, ADEA, FMLA, Section 1983, wrongful discharge, unfair labor practice litigation, and FLSA wage and hour disputes. He also regularly counsels employers regarding general and specific personnel matters. Brian frequently lectures and provides training on discrimination law, hiring and firing employees, sexual harassment, workplace violence, FLSA compliance, affirmative action, and employee testing/privacy. While earning his law degree at the University of Virginia, he was state vice president of the College Republicans and recipient of the prestigious Earl K. Shawe Labor Relations Award.

Many of our Platinum, Gold, and Silver sponsors will be attending as part of the networking opportunity our Chapter offers our generous business partners. Please welcome them.
